

S.A.S. Connections

Match 5, 2008

Dear Parents and Students of St. Ambrose School,

With four weeks left in the third marking period, students of all grades are working hard in class. Interim progress reports have been issued for students who are struggling and/or are missing too many assignments. Please remember to use Power School as a resource to keep up-to-date on your child(ren)'s academic performance. When you have a question, please write a note and the teacher will get back to you as soon as possible.

We do hope everyone had a fun snow day this Monday. Many parents have asked me if we still have Monday, March 16 off as a "snow day." Yes we do. Here is one of the little known facts of school calendar planning that I would like to share with you: Every year we plan four extra school days to use for snow or weather emergencies. To date we have used two, the 16th will be a third, which will leave us one extra snow day. If there are no further school closures due to weather, we will add an extra day off sometime in the future.

Finally, we would like to ask everyone to keep Fr. Joseph in their prayers. He will be returning to Uganda on March the 12th. We will miss him very much at St. Ambrose.

On behalf of the teachers and staff members of St. Ambrose, I wish everyone a blessed week.

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Norris

Principal of St. Ambrose School

Have you registered your child for next year?

Due to the closure of several Catholic schools in the area, we have had many new families enroll at St. Ambrose for the 2009-2010 academic year. Because of this, we literally have a waiting list for several classes.

At this time, we are assuming that all current students are going to return next year.

Parents MUST register their child(ren) by Monday, April the 6th.

Since registration formally began on January the 25th, we believe that this is enough time for families to register.

Also, financial aid forms are still available in the school office. Any parents seeking help with their tuition next year MUST fill out the Diocesan PSAS forms to be considered for aid next year.
