

St. Ambrose School

January 9, 2008

IMPORTANT REMINDER TO ALL PARENTS WORK BOND HOURS

As we approach the second half of the school year we need to gently remind every family of their 40 service hour obligation.

According to our records that are many families that have been working hard to do their service hours helping the serve the students and community of St. Ambrose School.

Sadly, there are quite a few families that have not yet even started working their work bond hours.

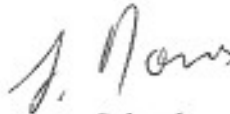

Please remember that the school has many opportunities, many of which occur daily, to obtain work bond hours. Here are but a few examples:

- 1) School lunch parent
- 2) Bingo worker
- 3) Wednesday envelop stuffer
- 4) Receptionist to help with the office
- 5) Morning traffic supervision
- 6) Many upcoming Catholic School Weeks and H.S.A. sponsored events

Please remember that any unfulfilled work bond obligation will result in a monetary charge. These fees will be assessed before next year's registration and must be paid.

Many thanks to all the families who work so hard to make our school the most wonderful, safe, exciting, and learning filled place.

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Norris
Principal of St. Ambrose School